

Jane C. Jackson – Senior Partner - Robinson & Lawing, LLP, Winston-Salem

Jane grew up in Aldie, Virginia. She attended Wake Forest University, and graduated summa cum laude in 1980 with a double major in mathematics and classical Greek. The recipient of a Post-Graduate Scholarship from the Atlantic Coast Conference, Jane attended law school at the University of Virginia, where she graduated in 1983, and was a member of the Order of the Coif.

Jane concentrates her practice on workers' compensation defense, employment law and general civil litigation. She is a member of the North Carolina Association of Self-Insurers and North Carolina Association of Defense Attorneys, as well as the Forsyth County and North Carolina Bar Associations. Jane has been a regular speaker at seminars on workers' compensation and employment law topics, and has served as a section council member, newsletter editor, vice-chair (2000-2001) and chair (2001-2002) of the North Carolina Bar Association Workers' Compensation Section.

Since 2001, Jane has been listed in Best Lawyers in America for workers' compensation and personal injury defense litigation. She has been named a "Super Lawyer" and "Top Fifty Female Attorney in North Carolina" by Charlotte Magazine. Jane has four times been named by Best Lawyers in America as the Lawyer of the Year in workers' compensation defense for the Greensboro Triad area (2019, 2016, 2014 and 2012). She is rated by her peers as AV Preeminent, the highest possible rating given by Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings.