

Donald Snizaski

---

Life and Safety Consultants, Inc

1997–Present

President • Life and Safety Consultants, Inc.

Don Snizaski founded Life and Safety Consultants, Inc. in 1997. As a former OSHA compliance officer, Don recognized the need that many organizations have a strong need for OSHA compliance assistance. With his experiences as a South Carolina OSHA inspector, Don provides firsthand knowledge and experience that helps employers develop a robust and sustainable safety culture, and in turn reduce their workers compensation claims.

31 Boland Ct.
Greenville, SC 29615

\(864\) 297-4521297-4521)

Don@lifeandsafety.com

Lifeandsafety.com

College of Charleston, Charleston, South Carolina

Don received his Bachelor of Science in Industrial Psychology with a special emphasis in Behavior Modification and minor in Philosophy / Health from the College of Charleston.

Class Title

How To Survive An OSHA Inspection

Class Description

How to survive an OSHA Inspection will provide a checklist of how to interact and properly perform during a real OSHA audit. This prestaton will address employee's safety behaviors, recordkeeping requirements, manager's performance, facility safety conditions, and safety program/training effectiveness.