

Heather White, MIE, CPE

Current Employer or Company Information

2000- Present

Ergonomist • The Ergonomics Center of North Carolina

Heather White is a Master Ergonomist for the Ergonomics Center of North Carolina (Center) housed in the Edward P. Fitts Department of Industrial Systems Engineering at North Carolina State University. She has provides ergonomics evaluations, training programs and process development expertise to companies in a broad range of industries including manufacturing, semiconductors, biotechnology and the office environment.

Education/Certifications/Experience

North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC

- Master of Industrial Engineering, 2000

Certified Professional Ergonomist (CPE), 2005

American Society of Safety Professionals (ASSP)

- ASSP Tarheel Chapter - Vice President/President-elect (2019-2020)

Class Title

Advances in Ergonomics

Class Description

By identifying root cause risk factors, companies can explore better workplace solutions. Content will start with the recognition of primary risk factors and dive into some of the more advanced solutions in the office and industrial environments.

 3701 Neil Street
Raleigh NC 27607

 919-601-6858

 HStarr@ncsu.edu

 <https://www.ergocenter.ncsu.edu/>