The John Martin Story: Safety is Foreseeing Failures

Class Description

Safety Is Foreseeing Failures

In this presentation we will see how important Leadership Choices impact all employees. We will look at how your “High Risk Employees” can ruin your entire Safety Process. We will see how Consistent Engagement can take your process to the next level. Finally, we will discuss how Proactive Initiatives (leading Indicators) can make the greatest positive impact to your organization.

This is a motivational presentation workshop that John Martin developed for Management and Safety Leadership Training Sessions over the last ten years. With the input of top Managers and Safety Managers this is a guideline of how your organization can take Safety to a new level.

Prepare to share your best practices and successful safety processes that make a positive impact within your organization.
